

United Way of the Columbia-Willamette

UNITED WAY KICKS OFF CAMPAIGN; HONORS EXEMPLARY VOLUNTEERS, COMMUNITY PARTNERS

SHO DOZONO RECEIVES JAMES H. RUDD COMMITMENT TO SERVICE AWARD

Sho Dozono receives the James H. Rudd Commitment to Service Award, handed by the award's namesake, James Rudd, CEO of Ferguson Wellman Capital Management.

Portland, Oregon, September 18, 2008—Sho Dozono, CEO of Azumano Travel and long-time United Way supporter, earned the James H. Rudd Commitment to Service Award. Sho was honored for supporting the community through his active participation in United Way, serving in many leadership capacities including board chair and as head of United Way's community campaign. Sho was also recognized for his leadership in organizing the Flight for Freedom to New York City following the September 11 attacks in 2001. He also gathered Oregonians to fly to New Orleans and help rebuild the city after Hurricane Katrina displaced thousands of families from their homes.